Concerts are held rain or shine

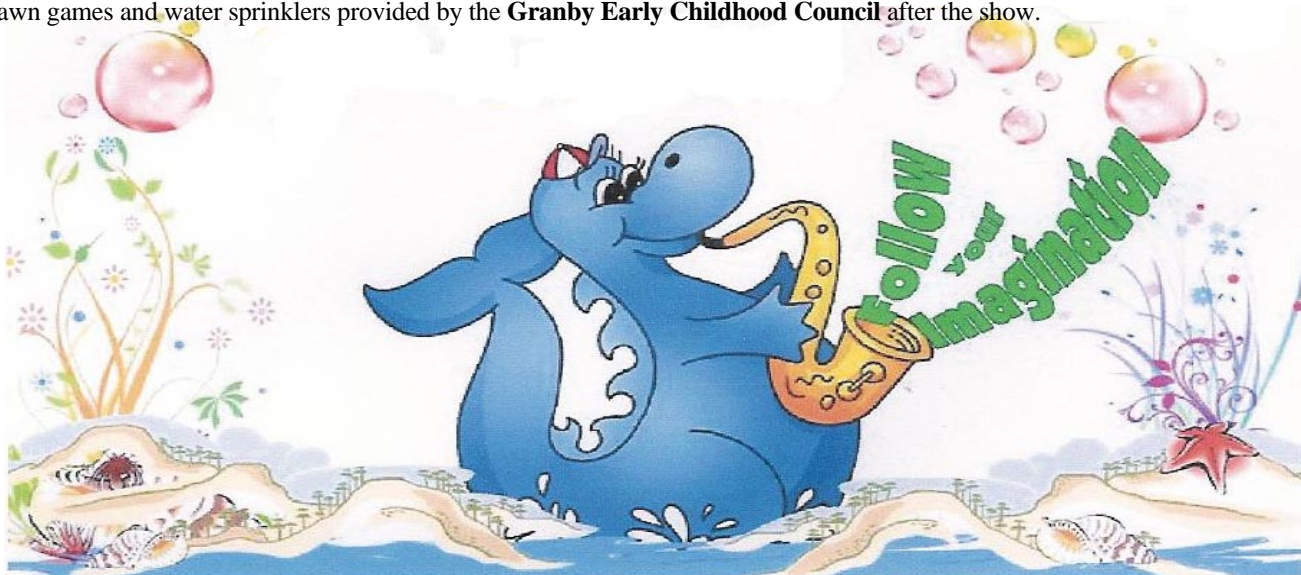

Rain Site: Pilgrim Conventant Church, 605 Salmon Brook

Animals not allowed (unless working assistant animals)

Geared to early childhood ages: the children become the show as they enjoy a special effects stage complete with a 3' tall stuffed Huga Tuga. Take an interactive journey through a storybook with bubble magic, freeze dancing, a spectacular light show, sound effects, a treasure chest of imagination, and original music by performer and author, Joe Shandrowski.

Books can be purchased at the show and autographed for your child for $10. Children can also create their own "Reading Rocks" t-shirt for $14, or buy a plush Huga Tuga toy for $14.

Pack a picnic lunch and join other infants, toddlers and preschoolers with their caregivers for a fun morning in the park. Lawn games and water sprinklers provided by the Granby Early Childhood Council after the show.

"all children arrive at school healthy and socially and emotionally prepared for academic success and life-long learning."
